

Nature vs. Nurture Assignment

In a one page paper, please explain the issue of Nature vs. Nurture in terms of your own life. Please use the following format. Points will be awarded for each paragraph, so please do not leave anything out!

Paragraph 1: An introduction to your paper that includes a demonstration of your understanding of the nature vs. nurture debate.

Paragraph 2: A complete assessment of your own perceived inherited traits and their affect on your development.

Paragraph 3: A complete assessment of the learned behaviors and environmental factors that have contributed to your development.

Paragraph 4: An explanation of the experience of the women in the interview "Identical Strangers," and how it pertains to the debate.

Paragraph 5: A conclusion, in which you justify which of the two factors is more prevalent in your experiences.

Nature vs. Nurture Assignment

In a one page paper, please explain the issue of Nature vs. Nurture in terms of your own life. Please use the following format. Points will be awarded for each paragraph, so please do not leave anything out!

Paragraph 1: An introduction to your paper that includes a demonstration of your understanding of the nature vs. nurture debate.

Paragraph 2: A complete assessment of your own perceived inherited traits and their affect on your development.

Paragraph 3: A complete assessment of the learned behaviors and environmental factors that have contributed to your development.

Paragraph 4: An explanation of the experience of the women in the interview "Identical Strangers," and how it pertains to the debate.

Paragraph 5: A conclusion, in which you justify which of the two factors is more prevalent in your experiences.

Nature vs. Nurture Assignment

In a one page paper, please explain the issue of Nature vs. Nurture in terms of your own life. Please use the following format. Points will be awarded for each paragraph, so please do not leave anything out!

Paragraph 1: An introduction to your paper that includes a demonstration of your understanding of the nature vs. nurture debate.

Paragraph 2: A complete assessment of your own perceived inherited traits and their affect on your development.

Paragraph 3: A complete assessment of the learned behaviors and environmental factors that have contributed to your development.

Paragraph 4: An explanation of the experience of the women in the interview "Identical Strangers," and how it pertains to the debate.

Paragraph 5: A conclusion, in which you justify which of the two factors is more prevalent in your experiences.