

Piaget Toys

You must create a toy for each of Piaget's four cognitive stages, each toy should be drawn neatly and colored. You may work with one additional person. You must then write a paragraph about each toy and include the following:

- Each toy should take up one side of a sheet of paper, you will need two sheets of white paper.
- Your descriptions can go under the toys on the same page.
- Describe specifically what the toy does and how it works.
- Describe Piaget's stage of cognitive development that the toy is a part of.
- Explain how the toy fits into the aforementioned Piaget stage as well as how your toy will benefit the child.

Piaget Toys

You must create a toy for each of Piaget's four cognitive stages, each toy should be drawn neatly and colored. You may work with one additional person. You must then write a paragraph about each toy and include the following:

- Each toy should take up one side of a sheet of paper, you will need two sheets of white paper.
- Your descriptions can go under the toys on the same page.
- Describe specifically what the toy does and how it works.
- Describe Piaget's stage of cognitive development that the toy is a part of.
- Explain how the toy fits into the aforementioned Piaget stage as well as how your toy will benefit the child.

Piaget Toys

You must create a toy for each of Piaget's four cognitive stages, each toy should be drawn neatly and colored. You may work with one additional person. You must then write a paragraph about each toy and include the following:

- Each toy should take up one side of a sheet of paper, you will need two sheets of white paper.
- Your descriptions can go under the toys on the same page.
- Describe specifically what the toy does and how it works.
- Describe Piaget's stage of cognitive development that the toy is a part of.
- Explain how the toy fits into the aforementioned Piaget stage as well as how your toy will benefit the child.

Piaget Toys

You must create a toy for each of Piaget's four cognitive stages, each toy should be drawn neatly and colored. You may work with one additional person. You must then write a paragraph about each toy and include the following:

- Each toy should take up one side of a sheet of paper, you will need two sheets of white paper.
- Your descriptions can go under the toys on the same page.
- Describe specifically what the toy does and how it works.
- Describe Piaget's stage of cognitive development that the toy is a part of.
- Explain how the toy fits into the aforementioned Piaget stage as well as how your toy will benefit the child.